Jury meets, returns no indictment

The special Morgan County grand jury appointed on Sept. 15 at the request of state Attorney General Greg Stumbo's office held its first meeting last Thursday.

LATE BULLETIN

The Attorney General's Office in Frankfort, which earlier had called a special grand jury to investigate Judge Executive Tim Conley on unspecified charges, told a reporter just before press time that the attorney general has no investigation ongoing in Morgan County. In response to a reporter's question about the matter, Vicky Glass, public information officer in the AG's office, said, "We do not have any sort of investigation into the judge's office in Morgan County."

The jury, which was in session for most of the day, heard testimony from at least two local witnesses, both Morgan County Road Department employees, and did not return an indictment.

Commonwealth's Attorney Brent Turner of Prestonsburg, the special prosecutor in charge of the jury, again did not identify the jury's target nor comment on the nature of the investigation.

However, it has become common knowledge in recent days, following a leak from the attorney general's office to a Lexington newspaper, that the target of the jury's inquiry was Judge Executive Tim Conley.

A spokesperson for the special prosecutor who assisted at the grand jury session here last Thursday, told The Courier on Friday that Turner plans to recall the jury sometime in November.

Corn Hole tourn. scheduled Nov. 18 at community cen.

The West Liberty Kiwanis Club and the Morgan County Community Center will sponsor a Corn Hole tournament Saturday, Nov. 18, at the Community Center in West Liberty.

The double-elimination tournament is open to all ages (children, men and women). First, second and third places trophies will be awarded.

Entry fee is $10.00 per team. Registration will begin at 11:00 a.m. and the tournament will start at 1:00 p.m. The tournament will be governed by traditional rules of Cincinnati Corn Hole. For information, call 743-4995 or 743-3897.

Health dept. now accepting flu shot appointments

Morgan County Health Center is accepting appointments for flu shots only beginning Nov. 1. Please make separate appointments for all other vaccinations.

Also beginning Nov. 1, Morgan County Health Center will be converting to a uniform standard sliding fee scale for services received at the health center. This means that your fee will be based on the number of people in your household and household income. This is for billable service only.

For your convenience, we are now able to bill Humana and CHA insurance as well as your Visa and MasterCard credit and debit cards for co-payments and fee services received at the health center. The flu vaccinations are still $20 each for the fiscal year of 2006-2007.

THE LITTLE BAND THAT COULD!

The Morgan County High School Band of Pride — "The Little Band That Could"

MCHS Band earns berth in State Sweet Sixteen of marching bands

The Morgan County High School Band of Pride, "The Little Band That Could," advanced from the Kentucky Music Education Association, KMEA Regional quarter-finals of Marching Band Competitions to the semi-finals; the Sweet Sixteen of Marching Band Competition, this past weekend.

Under the direction of Mr. Greg Greene, with the assistance of Mr. Kevin Akers, Ms. Angela Payne, Ms. Marsha Bartley (color guard coach), the band will compete at the KMEA Semi-Final Marching Band Competition in Bowling Green, this Saturday during the early morning and afternoon at the Bowling Green High School El Donaldson Stadium. The Finals will be held that evening in Bowling Green at Western Kentucky University's L. T. Stadium.

This is the first time in the history of Morgan County High School that the Marching Band has advanced from the quarter-finals to the semi-finals. Band members began working on their program in mid-July and later attended training camp at Camp Crescendo in Bullitt County. Mountain Telephone, which donated the funds that made this training possible, sponsored their camp.

The 28 students in the Marching Band are Makayla Adkins, Forrest

Adkins, Libby Akers, Brittany Bailey, Kim Bailey, Kregina Barker, Katie Brown, Patrick Cantrell, Ryan Dehaven, Mason Elam, Cory Ferguson, Mandy Frederick, Sandy Frederick, Zach Hance, Alex Haney, Dillon Horton, Drew Howard, Zach Howell, Brian Johnson, Will Joseph, Kayla Keeton, Kristen Lombardy, Aric Lonchar, Andrea Nickell, Robbie Paul, Whitney Ratliff, Colby Stahley and Josh Wright.

The Band wants to thank all those who have supported their effort and especially Mountain Telephone for its financial assistance, which went a long way in making their success possible.

Election set next Tuesday

Main focus will be on highly-charged race for Judge Executive

Other county, city, school board and judicial races also will be decided Races for U.S. Representative and state Appellate Judge are on the ballot, but the focus will be on local contests at next Tuesday's General Election in Morgan County.

In one of the most highly-charged county races in many years, Republican Judge Executive Tim Conley is being challenged by long-time Democrat Magistrate Mike Gevedon. Conley, the first Republican elected to the office in more than 70 years, has attempted to conduct a positive reelection campaign in the face of blistering attack ads sponsored by the county Democrat executive committee that attempt to tie him to the Republican administrations in Frankfort and Washington and against a backdrop of sniping from the Democrat-controlled fiscal court and the seating in September of a special secret grand jury called to investigate Conley on charges that so far have remained secret.

A race for Jailor between Democrat Jimmy Darrell Easterling and Republican Rick Barker has also generated much interest.

In addition, the race for Magistrate in District 3 has three contenders. They are Democrat Stanley Riggsby, Republican John "Ed" Beasley, and independent Democrat Brandon Elam, who is running as a write-in candidate.

Bids awarded for rural water line extension pjts.

The Morgan County Water District has awarded bids on two rural water line extension projects.

Risner Construction of West Liberty was low bidder on the 11-A Project, which includes new lines on Gevedon Branch, Laurel Fork, Cabin Creek Road, Leonard Havens Road, and Dyer Branch. Risner's bid of $603,734, which was awarded Oct. 23, was the lowest of five bids submitted.

Bids were awarded Oct. 30 for the 11-B Project and for construction of a water storage tank in the eastern section of the county.

G&W Construction submitted the low bid — $864,168.95 — for the 11-B

Project, which includes installing new transmission lines on Upper Sand Lick, Lower Sand Lick, Coffee Creek and Rt. 1260, Daniels Cemetery Road, Shop Branch, Mocking Bird Hill, Wright Road, Lonnie Wright Road, Hidden Valley, a sector of New Ky. 172, Buckner Branch Road, Lick Branch Road, Oldhouse Road, Silverhill, and Stingy Fork Road.

Welding Inc., was low bidder — $178,400 — on the accompanying project for a 50,000 gallon water storage tank.

Water District Manager Barbara Stacy said work on the projects could begin within 90 days.

Morgan County High to host annual Veterans Luncheon on Friday, Nov. 10

Morgan County High School in conjunction with Herman Volney Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will host their annual Veterans Luncheon on Friday, Nov. 10, to mark Veterans' Day. MCHS would like to say thanks to the many Morgan County veterans who have served in the armed forces, both past and present.

A flag-raising ceremony will take place and a special lunch for all veterans and their student-relatives will begin at 10:30 a.m. Morgan County High School invites its students to bring a veteran to lunch on Friday, Nov. 10, and have a special lunch with them. While they dine, participants can view picture displays of Morgan County veterans and an updated computer slideshow of veterans — a classroom project begun in 2003 by Mrs. Joanne Blair, social studies teacher.

Morgan County High School is proud of its students and veterans and asks veterans to mark their calendars now for Friday, Nov. 10. The luncheon will begin at 10 a.m.

Morgan County Judge Executive Tim Conley hosted approximately 1,200-1,500 supporters at his "People's Choice" Fish Fry on Friday, Oct. 27, at the Morgan County Community Center, along with eight other local candidates.

Conley, a candidate for re-election, reiterated administration accomplishments and outlined his vision for Morgan County if re-elected.

"You can just look around and see what we have done in the past four years," Conley said. "We have received millions from various grant projects, and

Annual Veterans Day program announced by Woman's Club

As Veterans' Day approaches on Nov. 11, the GFWC/KFWC Morgan County Woman's Club will be celebrating its silver anniversary. Yes, 25 years of honoring the United States military men and women.

The idea of honoring the veterans was conceived by Jewell Smith. It was during her term as club president (1981) that the program began. It was an era when few people were remembering publicly the sacrifices given by the soldiers of our county and surrounding areas.

Each year the program became more involved with a variety of speakers, guests, military exhibitions and musical performances.

This year's program will be held 11 a.m. Nov. 11, in the courtroom of the Morgan County courthouse on Main Street in West Liberty.

The Woman's Club extends a special invitation to all service men and women, and other citizens of the community to attend this event.

Please note: The Veterans'

Day committee would like to know which veterans have received the Bronze Star. Please call 725-5481 or 743-4464 after 7 p.m. This information is very important for our program.

Search For Justice Or Dirty Politics?

The appointment of a special grand jury over a month and a half ago in Morgan County could not help but raise eyebrows. Its timing just weeks before the election and the rumors that preceded it were enough to make it suspect. It had the smell of political chicanery of a meanness unexpected in our county, arousing suspicions in many quarters that its main purpose had little to do with serving the cause of justice but rather to effect the political demise of the county's first-term judge executive who is seeking reelection on Nov. 7.

Seemingly right on cue and lending credence to these suspicions, the special jury was called into session last week, just days before the election. The jury did not return an indictment. Even so, the prosecutor managed to provide more grist for the rumor mill, indicating that he plans to recall the panel "sometime in November."

Sometime in November could mean anytime before or after the election. Is it any wonder that many are skeptical? Could there be a single reasonable person of voting age in the county — Democrat or Republican — who does not harbor at least some skepticism about the reason behind the seating of this grand jury?

Morgan County has been poorly, maybe even cynically served by this jury's appointment. Its timing is just too much of a coincidence to be easily discounted. And its handling by calling it into session only days before the election after weeks of inactivity gives powerful legs to growing suspicions of possible collusion and misuse of political and prosecutorial power, something that in itself could warrant examination.

The seating of a special grand jury is a serious matter, not something to be played around with for political reasons. To do so would be to go beyond the pale by undermining trust in the institutions upon which our rights as citizens rest.

—EWK

CIVICS LESSON

Knowledgeable voters know that a grand jury indictment is an allegation — usually based solely on the testimony of prosecutorial witnesses and recommended by the prosecutor — that a violation of law COULD have occurred. A grand jury does not have to call the subject of its inquiries to appear before the panel to speak in his or her own behalf, and in fact seldom does.

Should an indictment be returned, a trial court SOME TIME IN THE FUTURE will hear the case. It is the trial court's duty to hear ALL the evidence, both the commonwealth's and the defendant's, and determine if the case has merit. If it is determined that it does not, the indictment will be dismissed. If it does have merit, the case will be tried before a jury and hopefully, a righteous judgment will be rendered.

COUNTY BUDGET STORY A SHOCKER

Dear Editor:

Last week when I read the story in the paper about what bad financial shape our county is in, I was in shock. It makes me wonder what everyone connected in any way with Morgan County Fiscal Court has been doing the past four years. I can't understand why a financial statement is not read before every fiscal court meeting and everyone present knows what Morgan County's financial obligations, needs, and their resources are. I believe everyone that has a vote should consider paying on what we owe before we buy what we want, with emergencies having much consideration.

I think when a person is elected to any office, she or he should recognize if there are any outstanding problems or debts and they should assume them and work hard to manage and solve them. I think that everyone connected to fiscal court should be held accountable for what happens as a result of the voting at the meetings. I realize that some of the officers in fiscal court have regular jobs and are tired after working all day and the meetings are at night. I think the members are being paid and the meeting should be held during the day while everyone is more alert and they will have more time to understand the county's problems and what the best solutions are.

If we had better cooperation and communication, maybe four years from now and just before November everyone in Morgan County will know what financial shape Morgan County is in. If they don't they should.

Please get out and vote.

SMALL TOWN POLITICS AS IT OUGHT TO BE

To the Editor:

In this day and age of nasty, negative campaigning filled with insinuations and half-truths, it felt good to attend the "People's Choice Fish Fry." The auditorium was packed last Friday night and it was clear who the people's choice was — Tim Conley's mom, Essie Conley! She brought the house down with cheers and applause from an audience that clearly appreciates her.

Essie and many of the Conley family were there to support Tim in his bid for reelection and host the community to a spread that included fried fish, hamburgers, hot dogs, baked beans, cole slaw, and a plethora of desserts. Democrat, Republican, and Independent all sat together and broke bread. Smiling, talking, laughing and I never saw one fist fight break out!

A number of speakers used the opportunity and open forum to address the crowd. There were lots of different t-shirts proclaiming to one candidate or another. It was exactly what good government should be. After all, we are all in this thing together (no matter what the party) and should be interested in the community as a community.

It was a nice time. A page out of a Norman Rockwell book. Small town politics, handshaking, smiles and back slapping. A positive, upbeat evening with an opportunity to meet some candidates. I liked it! I liked the food, I liked the speaking, and I liked the music. I, for one, am sick of the mean spirited political ads on TV, radio, and in the newspaper.

I liked the fact that I didn't hear any mud slinging. It was about the issues and the record of the last four years. Seems to me that's the way it should be. Especially in a small town where everybody really knows what is going on anyway. Not about whether you rode a donkey or an elephant into town.

I've made my decisions on who I want to vote for in the upcoming elections. Have you? If not, call some candidates and find out what they stand for and then go and vote on Nov. 7 for what you stand for. Railroad crossing signs say Stop, Look, and Listen. Let that apply here. Stop for a minute and think about the candidates and issues. Look at what's been done for Morgan County and the community by the people running for office. Listen to your heart and go vote. If you don't show up at the polls, you don't have it right to complain about the outcome.

We have men and women dying overseas so that people we'll never see or know can have the freedom to vote for who they want to govern them. Here at home we have that freedom already because young men and women died for us to have it. If we sit home and don't exercise the freedom we have, those brave people will have died in vain. Go to the polls on election day and make your choice known.

Linda Oakley, West Liberty

Supports Gevedon For Judge Executive

I registered with the Democratic Party in 1968. I have voted in every election since I registered except the 1969-70 elections when I was in Germany. I have probably lost as many votes as I have won. In almost every election I listen to pompous old windbags who know just what I need and why I should vote for them. Sometimes I think I will not take the time to go to the polls, but always have and always will. That gives me the right to gripe.

My Grandmother Haney always told us to go vote because sometimes one person can make a difference. I have voted for people in both major parties and have been burned by both. Some of my choices have turned out to be real "stinkers" and have not been limited to any one party. It is discouraging sometimes to listen to all of the bickering and finger pointing that goes on in Washington and Frankfort by some politicians. What is more disturbing is to see the way some of them (in a non-partisan way) root around like my grandfather's hogs used to do trying to get their part and more from the trough. They seem to forget that it is our hard earned money that they have been given the responsibility to oversee.

I have never put a bumper sticker on or a yard sign out. I have just gone and voted and that was the extent of my involvement in an election. Something is different about the upcoming election. I don't know if it is the many problems that the United States and other freedom-loving countries face, if I am caught up in the mood of of the country or I am just tired of being taken for granted. My wife, Sandi, and I recently attended the Democratic rally at Old Mill Park. I did not know what to expect as I had never been to one. Will Rogers one said, "I am not a member of any organized political party, I am a Democrat." It was good to see organization and everyone pulling together in the same direction

QUESTION FOR THE MAYOR?

To the Editor:

I was pulled over Saturday night for running a red light. It was explained to the city police why I ran the red light. I would like to ask the Mayor if I was a rich man or another police officer off duty, would I still get a citation?

Pallbearers were B.J. Thompson, Richard Thompson, J.R. Thompson, Gary Thompson, Allen Luman, Dylan Thompson, A.J. Snyder, and Corey Snyder.

AND GOD CREATED THEM ALL

The wonders of nature are mighty. The soul of man they entrall. The mountains, the trees, the waters, and God created them all. The wonders of nature are holy to the spirit they call. The wind and the stars, a rainbow, and God created them all. The wonders of nature are blessed, upon the heart they fall, a baby to love and cherish, and God created them all. Give thanks for the wonders of nature, for miracles large and small. The earth abounds with treasures, and God created them all.

BY AND BY

By and by the dreams come true, though now things do seem hard for you. Amid the triumphs and defeats, you may be sure the circle meets by and by each crooked path is merely just an aftermath, and worries that are ours today, will be as dust to brush away. By and by impatient heart, the blessed dawn when shadows part, and there will come the golden years, too rich and beautiful for tears. We won't be bothered anymore. By all that weighed us down before, for truly, just as Jesus states. All things belong to Him that waits.

Growing at Grace

Brother Rufus Smith sometimes teaches the Sunday night Discipleship Training class. Some of the written material, which we have to use, is not really very interesting, but we never fear we will not have an interesting class.

Brother Smith will take a sentence or sometimes just a word from the page and ask us a question. Sometimes the question leaves us in slack-mouthed silence, because the question is so confounding.

Brother Rufus says, "I want you to think!" the only problem is, he is too young to know about what happens to some of us older members, namely; no ability to remember, concentrate, or reason.

Sometimes though, his question sparks an instant, in-mass reply. Come and join us, you will not be bored! Bro. Rufus was our guest speaker at the evening service Sunday, Oct. 15th. His sermon concerned "our total surrender of everything is but reasonable service considering what Jesus did for us, and what blessings come from surrender, also what worry can come from disobedience." Brother Smith will be substituting for Pastor Mike Lindon the week of Oct. 29-Nov. 4th. Pastor Mike will be in revival at Brother Chuck Evans church in Madisonville, Kentucky during that week.

Our Youth class attended this year's "Acquire the Fire" and as always, they returned with new, stimulating ideas for their class and the church as a whole.

We celebrated Pastor Appreciation Month by having a luncheon for our pastor following the past Sunday morning service. We served "finger foods" and, of course, someone asked the question, "What is finger foods?" Deacon Gary Gilliam said, "I think it's when you get so hungry you start chewing on your fingers, isn't it?" or something along those lines. Oh well, it was a good day anyway!

Grace in Motion Puppeteers were a part of UNITE's prayer vigil on Sunday, Oct. 29. If you think there is a problem with drug abuse in this area, you need to support this organization, which is working toward eradicating this problem which is destroying so many lives and families.

Grace Baptist Church is located on Rt. 191 in Malone. We love having visitors/guests and everyone is welcome!

A MESSAGE FROM JUDGE EXECUTIVE TIM CONLEY

I have tried to run a campaign during this election that becomes the office of judge executive. It is difficult to keep from joining in the “mudslinging” by my opponent, but with much restraint I have done so.

Although I have been accused of many things and rumors have ran rampant; all rumors and negative ads on radio and in the paper have proven to be false. So far I have not been accused of kicking my dog Spike.

I love being judge executive and being able to help the people of Morgan County. If it wasn't for that fact it wouldn't be worth the harassment!

Together, we have made a lot of improvement during the past four years. I'm looking forward to four more years in which we can put Morgan County first and get rid of the petty bickering. The people of Morgan County deserve better from their elected officials. We were elected to serve not to obstruct!!

I hope you will support me in this election and give me an opportunity to serve you the next four years. I am a candidate for all the people, Republican and Democrat alike not just one party. During the past four years, I have done my best, worked tirelessly for grants to improve the county, and volunteered my time with groups wanting to make Morgan County a better place to live.

Snow Removal
With Judge Tim Conley

Between 2000 and 2005, 13 crashes were reported along this stretch of New Cummer Road in Morgan County. In 2005, county transportation officials dramatically improved safety along a bridge approach by clearing trees and brush to improve sight distances in the approach curve and installing Type 3 object markers to mark the bridge corners.

WHY RE-ELECT TIM CONLEY AS JUDGE EXECUTIVE OF MORGAN COUNTY?

Politics can cause feelings of excitement, happiness, enthusiasm, nervousness and tension. It can be fun or mean. Being a member of a certain political party usually comes from one's parents, belief in a party philosophy, influence of a friend, or help in getting a job.

I suppose on a state or national level, philosophy has more to do with a person's choice of party than anything else in how they vote. On the local level, choice of candidates and how one votes is usually decided on the individual's ability to govern, their personality, experience, honesty, integrity and morality. As you look over the state of Kentucky you can find Democrats elected in Republican counties and Republicans elected in Democrat counties because voters are examining their candidates, looking for the one they think will be best for their community. Just being a Republican or Democrat doesn't make one a good elected official.

In Morgan County, we feel Tim Conley has the best opportunity to help all of us, Republicans, Independents and Democrats, as we are all Morgan Countians. During the past four years he hasn't been a judge executive for either party, but a judge executive for the people of the county. Politically, he has a unique opportunity to work with those at the state and federal level to help Morgan County. He also has used political affiliation and friendship with U.S. Rep. Hal Rogers to assist him in securing grants and funds for the county.

Judge Conley's campaign motto for this campaign is “Just Look Around.” We think that says it all. Even though he inherited a $6 million debt when he took office. He has accomplished a lot, mostly through grants. Look at the county office building (inside and out), the new Wellness Center, and beautification of the grounds. (A grant has been secured to clean the stone on the building this spring.) He has secured equipment for the county highway garage, water lines, blacktop, grants for fire departments to buy equipment and a new fire engine, also grants for the veteran's organizations. These are some of the visible projects. There are also many things Tim has done for the City of West Liberty and county that are not visible but result in a better community for all of us. He is active in various organizations and always willing to help groups working to make Morgan County a better place for all of us.

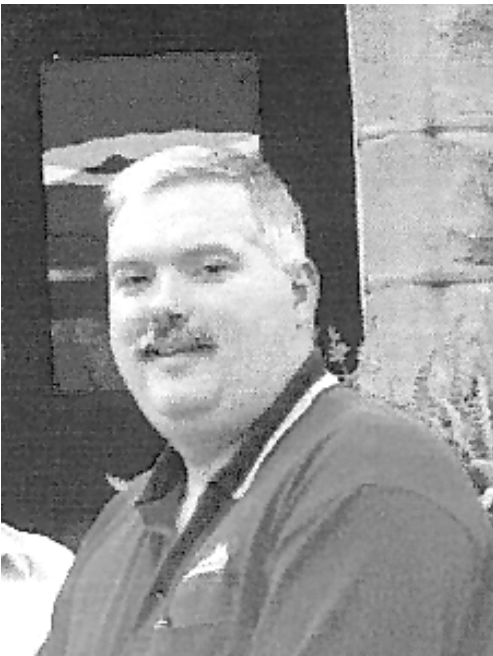

We think the primary questions in the coming Judge Executive election should be which candidate has done more for the people of Morgan County and which candidate can do more for Morgan County the next four years.

My Determination for Magistrate in District 3 & Wrigley

I want to start by telling you a little about my dedication for running for Magistrate in District 3 and why I refuse to give up. I began working away from home at a young age. My intention was to work in Morgan County where I have lived all of my life. But the lack of jobs made it difficult for my family and me to be able to work here at home. Everyone can relate to that!!! Look around, how many of your family and friends do you know that work here at home? Why is that? Where do you start? Who has the answer? I started at the fiscal court meetings over two years ago where I was in search for answers. How could just one citizen of Morgan County change this situation? I felt my voice was not going to be heard unless I was an elected official. That's when I decided to run for Magistrate so that if I was elected I could make a difference. As your Magistrate in District 3, I will do my very best to open the doors to where there are job opportunities here at home in Morgan County. I can't promise you I can change anything, but I can promise you that as your Magistrate I will work this job to its fullest, not by just listening to your concerns and needs but by acting on them. I am asking you, the voters of West Liberty Ward 3 and Wrigley, to give me the opportunity to become your Magistrate so that we can make a difference for the future of Morgan County!!! Woman's Club honors firefighters, rescue squad at annual banquet

By Miranda Cantrell James

The Morgan County Woman's Club honored local firefighters and rescue squad members at its 10th Annual Firefighter/Rescue Squad Appreciation Dinner on Thursday, Oct. 26, at the Morgan County Community Center.

Approximately 80 volunteer firefighters, rescue squad members and guests enjoyed a steak dinner prepared by the Woman's Club, with President Kim Barker presenting a $50 donation to each department.

"It is very important to honor our firefighters," Barker said. "They do a dangerous job for no compensation, and there is not a lot of public appreciation for them. Everyone in the community should thank these dedicated civil servants."

Accepting donations — proceeds of the Woman's Club Sorghum Festival booth — were West Liberty Fire Chief John Conley, Caney Valley Fire Chief Tommy Conley, Highway 172/Peddler Gap Fire Chief Charles Tharp, Blackwater Fire Chief Claudell Nickell, White Oak Fire Chief Wayne Tyree, Highway 519 Firefighter David Elliott and Assistant Rescue Squad Chief Mike Lacy.

Barker said the club also expressed appreciation to ambulance service employees by sending food to EMS headquarters.

Firefighters then honored with a moment of silence late comrades Denzil Adkins, of the Blackwater Fire Department, and Everett Manley, of the Highway 172/Peddler Gap Fire Department, who both passed away earlier this year.

West Liberty Fire Chief John Conley, who is also E-911 director, shared run statistics for all fire departments, rescue squad and ambulance service.

"In the past year, local fire departments responded to a total of 383 calls — 40 of which were housefires," Conley said. "The rescue squad responded to 83 calls, while the ambulance service responded to 2,547 calls. All our emergency personnel continue to work tirelessly, even though these numbers are low compared to previous years."

Conley also gave an update on West Liberty Fire Department's (WLFD) search for a new firetruck, made possible by a

$100,000 Community Facilities Grant to the City of West Liberty in September.

"Firetruck specifications have been submitted the Department of Rural Development," Conley said. "We are waiting for approval, and we will advertise for bids in local newspapers and fire department websites. Once bids are accepted and reviewed, it will take approximately six to nine months for the truck to be built."

West Liberty Mayor Bob Nickell said the city also plans to construct a new fire station for WLFD, which currently meets in the City Hall basement.

"The new fire station will be located on Index Hill," Nickell said. "We are waiting for the state to deed the land to us, which could happen at any time. We want to give the firefighters their own meeting place, as well as consolidate our firetrucks — which are currently housed in two different locations."

Morgan County Judge Executive Tim Conley also thanked honorees for their service.

"Volunteers are the backbone of Morgan County," Judge Conley said. "I support what you do, and I am working to get more funding for our fire departments and rescue squad. We have recently received approval for a $13,000 rescue squad equipment grant, and a $5,000 equipment grant for all fire departments. Thank you for your service to Morgan County."

Barker closed the evening with a poem, and spoke about the importance of volunteerism.

"Volunteer work, such as that of our volunteer firefighters and rescue squad members, is essential," Barker said. "Not only does volunteering bring a great sense of self-worth, it also makes one feel more connected to the community. Things get done when everyone pitches in and works as a team."

The Woman's Club would like to thank Commercial Bank for donating $700 for food, Commercial Bank employees Bob Martin, Donnie Dye and Julie Ferguson for grilling the steaks, and Morgan County High School Juniorettes Brooke Benton and Jessica Tipton for serving guests.

A MESSAGE TO THE VOTERS OF MORGAN COUNTY

Next Tuesday, Morgan County voters will vote for the elected candidates selected by the Democrat and Republican parties for county offices.

Before we vote perhaps we should take a look at both political parties, their records over the years and decide which party best represents the interest of Morgan County.

The Democrat Party has and always will be the party which represents the interest of the ordinary individual. On the other hand, the Republican Party has been a party favoring the rich and the privileged and has always voted against Democratic programs passed to help the ordinary individual.

These programs which we will discuss are programs passed when the Democrats had a majority in Congress.

THERE HAS NEVER BEEN ONE SINGLE PIECE OF LEGISLATION PASSED BY A REPUBLICAN CONTROLLED CONGRESS WHICH BENEFITED THE PEOPLE.

The recent tax cut the Republicans passed favored the rich — 90% of the tax cut went to the richest 10% of Americans. Let's review programs passed by the Democrats which have meant so much for the people of Morgan County:

SOCIAL SECURITY — This program provides the largest income for Morgan County. The Republicans have always been against it. In fact, President Bush attempted to change the program recently, a change which could have destroyed the Social Security Program. He failed, thanks to the Democrats in Congress. The Republicans don't like any program that doesn't favor the rich. We have earned social security, worked and paid for it. It is ours if we can keep the Republicans from killing it in the future.

MEDICARE AND MEDICAID — Two important programs for the people of Morgan County. These programs pay for the health care of the elderly and the less privileged. These programs were passed by a Democratic Congress despite opposition by the Republicans.

FARM PROGRAMS — Democrats have always supported the farmers. Morgan County farmers have benefited from these programs down through the years, and here again the Republicans have and continue to kill farm programs.

VETERANS BENEFITS — Democrats have always supported programs to help the veterans. Democrats support our troops wherever they are. President Bush and the Republicans have involved us in a SENSELESS war in AFGHANISTAN and IRAQ. Brave men and women are dying daily in a war started by President Bush. President Bush misled the American public by saying, "Iraq has weapons of mass destruction" in order to justify starting the war. Today, we know the truth, there were no weapons, and the world knows the truth. It is sad to know this war Bush started has resulted in our losing the support of nations throughout the world.

But there is hope — hope that Tuesday America will elect a Democratic congress. Democrats are committed to ending this war and bringing home our troops.

Now how can an individual running for public office under the banner of the Republican Party ask for our support? They have firmly established themselves as endorsing a party which has been against everything which has benefited and continues to benefit Morgan County.

The vote you cast Tuesday could be one of the most important votes you will ever cast. A Democratic vote will show that you support the party that gave us the programs mentioned above.

Isn't it time to return INTEGRITY and HONESTY to public office?

Finally, a new day is dawning in Kentucky and National politics.

The Democrat Party is coming back and will return control of the state and nation to the people.

This nation will again take our rightful place in the community of nations and use our influence to promote peace NOT WAR!

LET US ALL BE DEMOCRATS NEXT TUESDAY

During the October 2006 fiscal court meeting, a financial statement was presented to the members of the Morgan County Fiscal Court by Morgan County Treasurer Tommy Phipps. It is a fact and a matter of public record that Morgan County had $1.3 million dollars in unrestricted funds as of January 2003. As of October 18, 2006, the county had $4,238 in unrestricted funds.

What does this mean to the citizens of Morgan County?

The state could come in and take over our county government.

The state will look at the tax rolls.

Your property taxes could be increased to create revenue for the county to operate on.

A payroll tax could be levied against your hard earned money.

This county had operated for years without county property tax increases and without a payroll tax.

MIKE GEVEDON WAS A MEMBER OF A FISCAL COURT FOR OVER TWENTY YEARS AND THERE WAS NEVER A FINANCIAL CRISIS IN MORGAN COUNTY.

MIKE GEVEDON HAS A PLAN TO RUN COUNTY GOVERNMENT WITHOUT RAISING YOUR TAXES.

Hal Rogers Gets things done!

Hal Rogers has been making a difference in the lives of people in Southern and Eastern Kentucky for a long time, and he deserves our support in his campaign for reelection.

Consider just a few of the programs he has helped create that have a lasting impact on the region:

PRIDE—cleaning up rivers and streams and making every county in the district more attractive for tourists, businesses and economic development

Operation UNITE—cracking down on the epidemic of drug abuse that ravages thousands every year

Tour SEKY—putting a new emphasis on travel and tourism, and the jobs it creates. And it's about our rich heritage from the mountains to the pristine lakes and waterways.

The Center for Rural Development—bringing distance learning to all of Kentucky through its state of the art teleconferencing facilities

SKED — has recruited over 5,000 jobs since its creation. It's about jobs. It's about economic development. It's about a better educated workforce living in a clean and vibrant region.

Hal Rogers gets things done—for you. On November 7, vote to keep that leadership at work for all of us. Reelect Hal Rogers.

Re: Endorsement

Dear Judge Gevedon:

Laborers' Local # 1445 has followed your career since you were first appointed by Governor Patton as the Judge of the 37th District.

We are proud that you come from a Union background as well as a working mother.

The local has many members in the counties that you represent and they need a Judge that is knowledge of the law, has a stern hand, but also is compassion to their needs and care.

I have spoken with various friends of yours as well as mine and they have told me that you process these qualities and are fair and honest in the decisions that you make.

Therefore it is with great privilege that Laborers' Local # 1445 gives our Endorsement of you for the continuation of District Judge of the 37th Carter, Elliott and Morgan counties.

We wish you the best in a long career.

Sincerely,

Mitchell Oney
Secretary-Treasurer
Laborers' Local #1445

Morgan County has been very good to me. I was born and raised here, and after college and law school, I returned to Morgan County to open up my law practice. Morgan County is, and always has been, my home.

Over the past six years as your District Court Judge, I have proven to you that I have the ability and the integrity to get the job done. During that time period, I have handled more than 60,318 cases. In order to continue serving you, I need your help. Please vote RE-ELECT me as YOUR DISTRICT COURT JUDGE ON NOVEMBER 7. Thank you for your help and support.

also are on tap. In District 1, long-time board chairman, Jane Murray Smith, is being challenged by James H. Nunnery, Jr. And in District 2, incumbent Melanie Barker is being challenged by Pamela Jones Dye and Patty Hutchinson. In the non-partisan races for West Liberty Mayor and City Council, Mayor Robert "Bob" Nickell is being challenged by City Council Member Doren Bradley, and seven candidates are running for the six seats on the council. They are Alton Pelfrey, John A. May, Vickie Stacy Henley, Jim Rupe, Edwin

"Dwayne" Nickell, Belinda Marshall Jordan, and Mark Walter.

The non-partisan judicial races for Circuit Judge and District Judge also are being strongly contested in Morgan.

In the race for District Court Judge, incumbent Judge Kim Ison Gevedon of West Liberty faces a challenge from Rupert Wilhoit of Grayson, and Michael B. Fox and Rebecca Phillips, both of Carter County, are running to fill the Circuit Court bench vacated by the recent retirement of Judge Samuel Long.

Candidates for Judge of the Court of Appeals for Kentucky's 7th Appellate District are Janet L. Stumbo and David A Barber.

Also appearing on the ballot will be the names of Republican Congressman Harold "Hal" Rogers and his challenger for the 5th Congressional seat, Democrat Kenneth Stepp.

The polls will open at 6:00 a.m. and close at 6:00 p.m.

Sample ballots are published elsewhere in this edition.

Conley Rally ...

we have also created new jobs through the Boneal manufacturing plant at Index. This progress will not decline in the future; I want to continue growing Morgan County."

Conley also expressed commitment to volunteerism and community organizations.

"I am proud to be a volunteer, and I don't care what anyone says about it," Conley said. "This job [judge executive] has never been about me or my family - it is about our community, which includes everyone: our youth, churches, fire departments, civic organizations, etc. My dedication is to the people of Morgan County."

Conley said he is not committed to party voting, however.

"I am not a party politics person," Conley said. "I work for everyone, no matter what their politics are. I hope constituents will take the time to vote for the person, as straight-ticket voting can sometimes keep us from electing quality candidates. This is not about being a Democrat or Republican, this is about being a Morgan Countian."

Conley concluded with a special message to voters.

"I hold your friendship very dear," Conley said. "You are all part of my family, and I believe in you. I will always do my best to make you proud of your decision to vote for me."

Other speakers included Magistrate Frankie Spencer, Mayor Bob Nickell, district judge candidates Kim Ison Gevedon and Rupert Wilhoit, jailer candidates Jimmy Darrell Easterling and Rick Barker, circuit judge candidate Rebecca Phillips, Chesla Fox representing her husband and circuit court candidate Mike Fox, and Derrick Whitt representing school board candidate John "Ed" Beasley.

Judge Conley would like to extend special thanks to all voters and candidates who participated in the event.

Supt. Joe Dan Gold named to state advisory council

Morgan County School District Superintendent Joe Dan Gold has been appointed to the Local Superintendents Advisory Council (LSAC) by the Legislative Research Commission. Seven members present from each of the state Supreme Court districts and four members serve the state at large. The length of the term is four years and members rotate off most years.

As part of the LSAC, their charge is to "advise the chief state school officer and the Kentucky Board of Education concerning the development of administrative regulations and legislative policy. The chief state school officer shall submit all proposed administrative regulations and education policies for review by the council prior to seeking approval of the Kentucky Board of Education." Because the only way that education policy can be legally enforced vis-a-vis school districts is through inclusion in an administrative regulation, education policy has been interpreted to mean administrative regulation.

Superintendent Gold is completing his 10th year with the Morgan County Board of Education. He is also a member of the

Testing and Diabetes Control

Keeping blood glucose at near-normal levels helps people with diabetes avoid long-term complications, which can affect the eyes, nerves and kidneys. Testing blood glucose lets you see how well your medications, eating plan and exercise routine are working to achieve this goal. Table 1 shows available tests and recommended values.

Table 1. Comparison of Tests Measuring Blood Glucose

Test	What's Measured?	How Performed	Suggested Range
Self-monitoring	Daily changes in blood glucose	1 to 4 times per day, at home, using blood glucose monitor	Before eating: 90-130 mg/dl After eating: <180 mg/dl
A1c	3-month average blood glucose	Lab test performed every 3 to 6 months, or may use home test	<7%
Fructosamine	2- to 3- week blood glucose average	Lab test	Within laboratory recommended range glucose levels over the past three months, and is usually performed by a lab. It measures the linking of glucose to red blood cells. The higher your average blood glucose, the higher your A1c. For people

Self-Monitoring

Self-monitoring using a blood glucose monitor should be performed each day, at scheduled times determined by your healthcare team. This test shows daily changes in blood glucose levels. Here's how to get the most from your self-monitoring:

- Know your monitor. Select a low-maintenance monitor that doesn't require cleaning or complicated calibration.
- Be sure to get an adequate blood drop, and avoid extreme temperatures while testing. Identify which conditions may cause inaccurate readings for your monitor.
- Practice using your monitor with your doctor or pharmacist. If you don't know which monitor to choose, ask your pharmacist.

macist. When you have questions, you'll know where to find help!

- Know what actions you're supposed to take as a result of your blood glucose reading.
- Enter your results in a logbook, or select a monitor that allows you to enter data electronically. Bring your log or monitor to your doctor's appointments.

If your blood glucose value is abnormally high or low, or you're experiencing symptoms of high or low blood sugar, call your doctor.

A1c

The A1c (formerly referred to as HbA1c) test gives information about your blood with diabetes, your value should be below 7% to reduce your risk of complications. The American Diabetes Association recommends that you have an A1c test performed two to four times per year.

Fructosamine

This is a lab test that examines the linking of glucose to protein in the blood. It provides a two- to three-week overview of glucose control. Situations in which a fructosamine test may be used include: when you're changing diabetes regimens; during pregnancy, when varying hormone levels may affect insulin requirements; and when red blood cell levels are low, as this may cause an A1c test to be inaccurate.

Remember, if you have any questions or concerns about diabetes, talk to the pharmacist at a participating Diabetes Shoppe drug store. As a center of diabetes care, your Diabetes Shoppe offers the most comprehensive line of products and information available to help you better manage and "live well" with diabetes.

Elect

JOHN "ED" BEASLEY

To The Voters of Magisterial District 3

Hello,

I want to tell you about my brother-in-law, John "Ed" Beasley. I am not going to talk about his many qualifications, but about his character. He fights for what he believes in, and he never gives up.

One of the qualities I admire most in Ed is his ability as a peacemaker. He always listens to both sides, weighs the facts, then tries to negotiate with all concerned. He never leaves the problem or the people until the matter is resolved and both sides are satisfied with solution.

He has been married to my sister, Leatha, for 34 years. What many of you do not know is that Leatha has been in a wheelchair for 28 of those years. Ed has stood beside her and devoted his life to making hers better. Ed has never quit or given up when they have had to face many of the challenges thrown at them.

Not only is he a peacemaker and loyal, Ed is an honest and trustworthy man. If you want a magistrate who is hard working and never quits just because the job got tougher than what he signed on for, then John "Ed" Beasley is the candidate for you!

I know that it does matter to Ed if you are a Democrat, Independent or Republican. As a magistrate, Ed would only see the person and work to solve the problem. Our entire family is supporting John "Ed" Beasley, and we ask for your support and vote also.

Thank you,
Garland "Bub" Bishop

Ghost of Winding Stair Showdown On Main Street

A bunch of crows sittin on a telephone wire down on Main Street watch as a crowd begins to gather in the street below. If you're familiar with local politics, you should be able to identify at least some of the movers and shakers spotted by the crows.

One crow says, "Kaaw! Kaaw! Who's that a ridin up the street on the mule with all them coon hounds a followin behind? He's a spittin bakker juice ever where!"

Another crow says, "Kaaw! Kaaw! Who's that man with his head shaved wearin a karate suit walkin in front of the mule?"

A big Irish lookin guy comes a drivin up in an old green Dodge pickup with a big plastic water tank in the back and joins the man on the mule and the man in the karate suit.

Another crow looks down the street in time to see a big old guy dressed in a white suit and a white hat on like "Boss Hogg" come around the corner in a big white Cadillac. It's a figger from out of our county's colorful past," says a voice in the crowd. "I thought he'd done passed on," somebody else says. "Don't matter, I wouldn't miss this for the world!" the big guy in the white suit replies, grinnin from ear to ear.

The crowd on the street is gettin thick. "Somethin big's a brewin for sure," says one of the crows.

A white haired man wearin an Elvis Presley suit drives up and parks in front of the mayor's office just as a Marine walks out the door. "Semper fi!" yells the Marine and strolls down the street past a heavy built feller flippin a nickel up in the air and sayin over and over, "Heads I win, tails you lose."

Then a familiar lookin man with white hair drives up in a garbage truck a smilin at ever one and sayin over and over, "I take PRIDE in ever thing I do."

There's a man, a real tall man, with orange hair and not much of it. He's a wearin a suit from the 60's and tennis shoes and he's carryin a microphone in his hand. He and the guy in the garbage truck cross the street to converse with a guy in a Corvair.

About this time, a big black Suburban pulls up and a tall, bald headed man gets out. He's got on work boots and he strolls over to the man on the mule and starts a talkin about all the things he's plannin to get done for Morgan County.

Then everybody's heads turn to look as a tall, handsome man ridin a donkey and wearin a shirt that has DEMOCRAT printed on it in big letters rides up the street and stops in front of the bank on the corner. He's followed by about 70 stalwart advisors, all ridin donkeys, and hundreds of supporters who come to a stop and line up behind him.

At the other end of the square, an elephant comes around the corner and lumbers to a halt in front of the bank across the street from the mayor's office. The man ridin the elephant has a loud speaker that won't stop talkin as a procession of firetrucks, ambulances, DAV with flags, ladies in pink from the hospital, and hundreds of volunteers swings up the street and lines up behind him. The guy ridin' the elephant steps to the street. He's wearin a shirt with the word REPUBLICAN printed in big letters on the front and the word DEMOCRAT printed in big letters on the back.

"Uh oh," says one crow, "looks like it's gonna be a showdown!"

The guy that was ridin the elephant picks up his loud speaker, walks to the middle of the street and hollers toward the crowd in front of the bank on the corner, "We're gonna settle this right now."

At the other end of the street, the guy in the work boots turns to the guy with DEMOCRAT printed on his shirt and says, "Looks like this is it. Let's you and him go at it."

Somewhere a car radio is playin. It's music from "The Good, the Bad and the Ugly." Shots ring out.

As the smoke begins to clear, one of the crows says, "They're both layin there. But I don't think either one of them is dead."

"Don't matter," says a young crow. "Let's go eat."

"Not so fast," says the oldest crow. "We're gonna have to wait to the 7th to see which one don't make it."

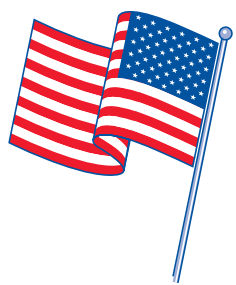

"Hope it's the Democrat" says the Republican crow. "I'm partial to steak."

"I hope it's the Republican," says the Democrat crow. "I'm used to bologna."

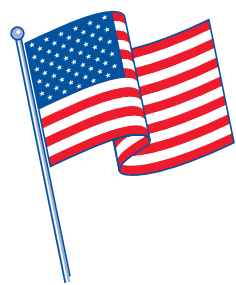

Steak or bologna, I guess we'll just have to wait till the 7th to see who survives.

Barker Makes Final Appeal To Voters

I would like to thank everyone for their kindness and hospitality as I have tried to visit as many people as possible, and to apologize to those who I have not been able to visit.

Seeking public office has been a great experience, and very enjoyable. I would like to thank my opponent for his professionalism and conducting a clean campaign.

If you elect me as Morgan County jailer, there are several self-help programs I would like to put into place with the jailer's department. As I have said, I feel there are good people making bad decisions.

I would also like to investigate the possibility of having a jail in Morgan County. Taxpayers are currently spending over $300,000 a year on transporting and housing prisoners. Could that money be spent on a jail in Morgan County, which would create jobs? I am writing to investigate the possibility and report to the fiscal court and state, which would make the decision, not the jailer's department. If you, the voters, choose not to elect me as jailer, I will share my programs with my opponent and assist him in any way I can.

I believe that the outcome of a political race should be to improve the county and for the county, not for one's own personal gain. On Nov. 7, win or lose, I will still be a Morgan Countian and want what is best for the county.

Thank you for your support,
Rick Barker

Nominate A Caregiver

Help us celebrate the National Family Caregiver Month in November! The Family Caregiver Support Program in the Gateway Area would like to receive nominations for "Caregiver of the Year". To nominate a caregiver, just simply write a brief description on why the nominator thinks the caregiver should received the "Caregiver of the year" award and what makes the caregiver most extraordinary and devoted to their vital caregiver role. The nominator needs to also tell how they are related to the caregiver and submit the caregiver's, as well as their own, name, address, and telephone number where they can be reached.

To qualify the caregiver must:
1. Reside in the Gateway Area (Bath, Menifee, Montgomery, Morgan, and Rowan Counties).

2. Care for someone in-home who is 60 years of age or older.

Once we have received your nomination, the Gateway Area Council on Aging will review it. The Council will choose the most eligible and devoted caregiver to be the "Caregiver of the year". the winner will receive a certificate and a gift that will be presented during the Gateway Area Development District Board of Directors meeting on November 28, 2005. Also, the chosen "Caregiver of the Year" will be recognized in the local newspapers. The recognition will take place as part of the National Family Caregiver Month, which is proclaimed by President Bush to honor and support family members, friends, and neighbors who provide care to their loved ones in need.

Caregivers who are caring for someone at least 60 years of age can obtain services from the Family Caregiver Support Program. Services offered are information, assistance, support groups/caregiver training/counseling, respite, as well as supplemental services. If you would like more information regarding the Family Caregiver Support Program or about how to nominate someone for "Caregiver of the Year", contact Becki Thomas at the Gateway Area Development District at (606) 674-6355. All nominations need to be mailed to Gateway Area Development District, Attn: "Caregiver of the Year", P.O. Box 1070, Owingsville, Ky. 40360. The deadline to receive nominations is November 15, 2005.

Some of the services included in these health fairs include flu shots at minimal charge, BMI's, glucose and blood pressure checks, derma scans, respiratory, and much more. A chili supper will be conducted from 5:15 to 5:45 p.m., information booths, screenings, and childrens activities from 5:45 to 7 p.m., and door prizes will be given at 7 p.m. Following is a schedule of the fairs: West Liberty Elementary, Thursday, Nov. 2; East Valley, Thursday, Nov. 9; Cannel City Elementary, Tuesday, Nov. 14; Ezel Elementary, Thursday, Nov. 16; Wrigley Elementary, Tuesday, Nov. 28. Make plans to attend one of these fairs.

ATV Toys For Tots Ride slated Sunday, Nov. 5

Eastern Kentucky ATV Association will be sponsoring an ATV ride, "Toys For Tots", on Sunday, Nov. 5. Riders will leave from Drexell Lewis' barn located 6 miles north of West Liberty on Ky. 519. (Look for the barn with the "Go Big Blue" sign painted on the roof). Registration begins at 12 noon and riders will leave for the trail at 1:30 p.m. Each rider (operator and passenger) must bring a new, unwrapped toy for a boy or girl (valued at $10), or make a $10 donation per person riding. All toys and donations will be distributed to needy children in Fleming, Lewis, Rowan, and Morgan Counties. Helmets are required for riders under the age of 16 either as an operator or passenger. Riders must provide their own non-alcoholic drinks and snacks. A campfire will be provided mid way through the ride for those who would like to roast hotdogs or marshmallows. For additional information contact Tony Patrick, (606) 743-3621, or Drexell Lewis, (606) 743-3394.

Sammy Adkins band at Cannonsburg Nov. 4

Sammy Adkins and the Sandy Hook Mountain Boys, along with E.K. Railroad, will be performing at Blue Ribbon Fox Hunters Lodge, at Cannonsburg, on Saturday, Nov. 4, at 7 p.m. Come out and enjoy an evening of old time mountain and bluegrass music at its best!

Donations needed for victims of a house fire

The residence of Jessica Hounshell and her two small children, of Hazel Green, was destroyed by fire Monday night, Oct. 23. The family lost all of their belongings. They are in need of living quarters, clothing, furniture, etc. Clothing sizes needed are ladies 12-14 (medium); girls size 5-6; and little boys 24 months. Anyone with items to donate, or knowing of a place the family could live, may call 725-5030, or 725-5042.

Broadway Church reschedules fish fry

Broadway First Church of God has rescheduled the fish fry to Sunday, Nov. 12, at 3 p.m. The purpose is to thank all those who sponsored or helped in anyway to make our July Walkathon a great success. The proceeds were over $8,000 and was used to pave the parking area adjacent to the church.

ELECT

Circuit Judge

Before I was the choice to receive the appointment as Circuit Judge, I was the choice of 6,555 citizens of Carter, Elliott, and Morgan Counties in the Primary Election.

That’s because I have ALL of the qualities the citizens of Carter, Elliott, and Morgan Counties deserve in a Circuit Judge.

EXPERIENCE

As an attorney, I represented clients in practically every conceivable courtroom proceeding, including trials in both Circuit Court and District Court. Over the last 10 years, I was in the courtroom on an almost daily basis. When I wasn’t in the courtroom, I was in my law office meeting with clients and working on the types of cases which regularly come before the Circuit Judge such as criminal, property, employment, contested probate, commercial, personal injury, and contract matters. Without question, I devoted 100% of my work week to the practice of law. By contrast, in the fiscal year 2005, state compensation records indicate that my opponent spent 72.74% of each 40-hour week administering the child support program. (This time was compensated at an hourly rate of $45.00 per hour and was paid in addition to the full salary allotted to a County Attorney.)

ABILITY

I attended Kentucky Christian College on a full scholarship and received my Bachelor of Science degree in 1993, graduating first in my class. After receiving a full scholarship to attend law school, I earned my Juris Doctor degree from Northern Kentucky University – Salmon P. Chase College of Law in 1996, graduating second in my class. I have the ability to analyze and apply the law. However, I also have the ability to deal with the personal aspects of the Circuit Judge’s position as I have the demeanor to work with the public and the participants in the court system.

DEDICATION

Throughout my law career, I worked evenings and weekends to ensure that my clients’ business was handled properly. As Circuit Judge, I have used this same work ethic to ensure that the people’s business is being handled properly. I will put in the time and the effort outside of the courtroom so that things run smoothly inside of the courtroom.

RESPECT FOR ALL CITIZENS

I believe that all citizens deserve to be treated with respect, regardless of their social standing or their income level. This is the way I conduct myself and the way I conduct my courtroom.

HONESTY AND INTEGRITY

My campaign for Circuit Judge reflects my values. I have campaigned with honesty and integrity because I will serve you with honesty and integrity. In the midst of a slew of false, misleading, and offensive campaign tactics, I have remained true to the principles I stand for every day.

SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT

In my campaign, I have focused on providing voters with information about my education, training, and experience; my beliefs as to how citizens should be treated in the courtroom; and my views as to why I am the right person to serve as Circuit Judge. Regrettably, my opponent has chosen a different path. Now, my opponent is implying in radio ads that I was for the “Right to Work Act” and the movement to repeal prevailing wage. At the same time, he is presenting himself as a union man. As I have received a tremendous outpouring of support from union labor, I must take the opportunity to set the record straight on this issue. I am the only candidate in the Circuit Judge’s race endorsed by the Tri-State Building and Construction Trades Council and its affiliated local unions and by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Trainmen. These endorsements would NEVER be given to a candidate who opposed union labor. When a labor rally was held at the Carter County Courthouse in February of this year concerning the Right to Work Act, I was the only candidate in the Circuit Judge’s race that attended this rally. When my opponent and I were asked about crossing union picket lines on WGOH’s “County Conversations” candidate forum, I was the only candidate in the Circuit Judge’s race that directly answered the question and spoke out against crossing picket lines. That’s because I am the only candidate in the Circuit Judge’s race that has never crossed picket lines or had employees cross picket lines. Although I have previously provided the public with the information to set the record straight on the various other false and misleading statements being made about me, I have always declined to discuss this matter with specificity. However, my opponent’s recent attempts to mislead the public on the union issue are not only an offense against me, but also an offense against the Alltel workers whose picket lines were crossed.

On November 7th, keep honesty and integrity in the Circuit Courtroom.

Tips for saving money on propane heating bills

As energy prices continue to rise, millions of homeowners still choose propane because it is the same clean, safe and reliable energy source it has always been. And the Kentucky Propane Education and Research Council is here to help you understand the energy industry while providing ways to conserve resources and save you money.

In recent years, virtually every fuel source has experienced an increase in price. Three main factors contribute to higher propane prices:

- Higher crude oil and natural gas prices. Because propane is produced from both crude oil and natural gas, its price generally follows those energy sources. As you know, crude oil prices are considerably higher today than last year.
- Seasonal weather conditions. Colder temperatures during winter months increase demand for propane, particularly for home heating, which reduces supplies and leads to higher prices.
- International influences. The global propane market is constantly changing. New customers all over the world are turning to propane as a home energy source. As a result, there is increased competition for propane, which means higher prices.

Here are some simple steps you can take to lower your energy bill year-round:

- Inspect and tune up your residential heating system regularly. A heating system that runs well is more efficient and will save you money.
- Change your furnace filter monthly. Clean filters will increase efficiency. If on a monthly payment plan, use receipt of your monthly propane bill as a reminder.
- Invest in a programmable thermostat timer that lowers your home's temperature when you are not at home. You can cut annual heating bills by as much as 10 percent per year by turning your thermostat back 10-15 percent for eight hours per day.
- Protect against drafts by caulking and weather-stripping around windows, doors and other openings such as ducts, fans and vents.
- Close vents and doors in unused rooms. Make sure your basement and attic are properly insulated.
- Install flow-restricting showerheads. You can reduce hot water usage by up to 50 percent without affecting water pressure.
- Turn your water heater from the standard 120° to 115°. You will not be able to tell the difference and you could save more than 10 percent on your water heating bill.
- Run washing machines,

clothes dryers and dishwashers with a full load.

Create Your Energy Plan

- If you are not on a regular delivery schedule, you should consider filling your propane tank before the start of the heating season – do not wait until it is empty.
- Discuss payment plan options with your propane retailer. Some retailers will help you spread your projected annual cost of propane over many months, spreading out the cost of seasonally higher bills.
- The federal government is offering a tax credit of up to $500 for qualifying energy-saving improvements made during the 2006 and 2007 calendar years. The credits are available for certain home improvements including high-efficiency heating and cooling equipment such as propane water heaters and furnaces. For more information visit energytaxincentives.org.
- Design your energy plan with these tips, tools and resources:

Department of Energy – hes.lbl.gov; eere.energy.gov/consumer; energystar.gov; Alliance to Save Energy – ase.org; Propane Education & Research Council – www.usepropane.org; National Propane Gas Association – www.npga.org.

In addition to the many ways to save money, assistance is available if you need help paying your bills. For more information, visit the Department of Energy at eere.energy.gov/weatherization/apply.html, or contact the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program at 1-866-674-6327, energyassistance@ncat.org or www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/liheap.

Field Day winner

Several students from area high schools recently took part in the FFA Field Day contest at Morehead State University's Derrickson Agricultural Complex. Among the competitive events were livestock judging, auctioneering, public speaking and tractor driving. Brianne Adkins, of Morgan County, placed second in the horse judging category. Congratulating Adkins is Dr. Adam Kantrovich, MSU assistance professor of agriculture education.

How to prepare your home as winter months approach

Winter months are fast approaching. Home maintenance and repairs should be done year round as needed, but there are some things should inspect in early fall to insure that our home is ready for winter.

When inspecting around the home there are several areas that we should check. These include the foundation, basement, yard, roof, exterior walls, windows, doors, interior surfaces, electrical systems, heating and cooling systems, plumbing and safety issues.

As we inspect the following:

Foundation – look for signs of water damage and cracks. Check to make sure that water is draining away from the foundation. If the house has an underground drainage system, be sure that it is working effectively.

Basement – inspect the area for any cracks in the walls or floor. Repair any cracks or openings to make it water-tight and prevent water damage. Also inspect for small openings and cracks in joints or seams in the framework of the house, the attic and crawl space. Pay special attention to cracks around doors and windows. Cold winter air can enter our home through these cracks and openings. Caulk and weather strip these areas to save energy and add comfort during the winter months. The weather stripping around doors not only prevents cold air from coming into the home, but will also keep out insects and pests that could otherwise invade our homes. Autumn is the best time to do insulating. Do not wait until it gets too cold to do these tasks.

Yard – prepare by raking leaves and pruning trees and shrubs. Do not leave patio and lawn furniture outside. Move them into the basement or garage to prevent damage from the winter weather. When the temperatures drop below freezing, shut off sprinkler and other outside water systems. Store garden hoses in the garage or basement with tools that will not be needed during the winter months.

Roof – check for loose or missing shingles and make any needed repairs. This will keep snow or wind from causing further damage to the roof. Clean out the gutters to remove dead leaves and debris. This will allow water to flow easily through the drain system. Examine the chimney to be sure it is secure and there are no loose bricks or mortar. Hire a chimney sweep to remove any buildup from the chimney, hearth and firebox. This should be done annually if the fireplace is used often to eliminate creosote buildup that will create a fire hazard.

Fall and winter temperatures usually cause heat bills to increase. Before extremely cold weather, check the heating system including filters, pilot lights and burners. Finding a professional to clean and service the heating system early in the fall may save money by preventing problems that could arise later in the winter months. Vacuum the dust from heating vents, baseboards and cold-air return vents. Indoor pollutants from this dust buildup can cause illness during the cold weather.

Take a closer look at smoke and carbon monoxide detectors. Test each one and replace batteries if needed. It is a good idea to do this the same weekend as daylight savings time ends. If you have a gas furnace or water heater, gas or kerosene space heater, fireplace or wood burning stove, be sure to have properly functioning detectors in these areas.

For more information on how to prepare your home for the cold winter months, contact the Morgan County Extension Office at 743-3292.

Educational programs of the University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service serve all people regardless of race, color, age, sex, religion, disability or national origin.

Puppy buyers beware; all ‘papers’ not created equal (NAPSA) — It wasn't hard for Kansas City resident Gladys Gillihan to decide that she wanted a cuddly Miniature Poodle puppy. She found a breeder who advertised an American Kennel Club-registered Poodle-complete with "papers"-and she assumed that was what she was getting. When she picked up her puppy, the breeder said she'd send "papers" in the mail.

But the "papers," which Gillihan knew she needed to register her dog with the AKC, never arrived. Repeated phone calls to the breeder went unanswered.

"All too frequently we hear this same story from disappointed puppy buyers," said Lisa Peterson of the AKC. "Some claim they were intentionally misled by a puppy seller who implied that the dog was AKC-registrable and later sent them papers from another registry-or they received no papers at all."

With more than 20 different canine registries in the U.S., the term "papers" is often confusing to some first-time puppy buyers. Each registry has varying standards and registration criteria, so puppy buyers should familiarize themselves with these registries before they select a breeder.

The 122-year-old AKC is the only registry in the U.S. with a stringent inspections program and care and conditions policy that helps ensure the health, safety, and welfare of the dogs. While a few registries require dogs to be purebred (bred from documented members of a recognized breed over generations), most have no system for monitoring their care, record keeping and identification, and many will register dogs with little or no proof of lineage.

"With a purebred, a large part of what the consumer is buying is the dog's pedigree-proof of its heritage-which provides insight into the dog's eventual appearance, temperament and suitability to their lifestyle," added Peterson. "But if you don't do the research and find a responsible breeder, disreputable breeders or deceptive retailers may be able to take advantage of you."

The following tips from the AKC will help ensure you get a happy, healthy puppy:

- Find a responsible breeder with many years of experience and at least one dog club affiliation.
- If "papers" aren't available at the time of delivery, wait until the breeder receives them before you pay for your puppy.
- Make sure to get "papers" from the registry you were promised. Many registries have similar names and logos.
- If you wish to register your puppy with the AKC, get proper documentation. AKC does not accept registrations from most other registries.
- Keep in mind that once you complete the transaction, there is often no recourse for an unsatisfied buyer.

To find a responsible breeder, visit www.akc.org.

Gateway providing funding for un/underinsured citizens

Gateway Community Services Organization has provided funding to the Gateway District Health Department to benefit uninsured and underinsured residents of Bath, Morgan and Menifee counties who are at 225 percent federal poverty level.

These funds are from the Healthy Community Access Program (HCAP), Department of Health and Human Services' Health Resources and Services Administration to promote and create healthy communities in medically underserved areas. The HCAP funding came to Gateway Community Services through collaboration with Kentucky Foothills Community Action Partnership in Richmond. The Gateway District Health Department is part of a consortium that administers the funding.

Gateway has already expended $50,000 in vouchers for services for those meeting program requirements in three counties.

Funding has met needs for medical, prescription, dental, vision, hearing and specialty services. Gateway will now be making an additional $20,000 available to the District Health Department for this underinsured and uninsured population.

The District Health Department plans to utilize New Hope Clinic in Owingsville and People's Clinic in Morehead to reach the populations needing these funds. Each of the clinics is a non-profit free agency serving individuals not having medical insurance.

A Funny

"How did you get that bump on your head? a man asked his friend.

"Well, there was this sign over the entrance of a building I was about to enter, and since I'm near-sighted, I stepped closer to read it."

"And what did it say?"

"Caution — door swings out."

Magistrate • District #3

Once again, I want to ask each one for your vote and support on Nov. 7. If I missed seeing anyone, please feel free to call me or stop by. I would enjoy hearing from you. Since I started campaigning I have heard many of your concerns, ideas and things that are important to you, the voters of District #3. I would like to share with you some of the ideas I have to make sure I know what your needs and concerns are, and what is important to you not only now, but also in the future to keep everyone who is interested involved in the progress of our district.

First of all, I feel our people and our quality of life are the most important issues of this election. Our children, middle-aged and elderly all have different needs that should be addressed accordingly. If elected:

- I will work closely with our elected officials and the fiscal court to pursue every avenue that would bring improvement to our district and make the quality of life better for our people.
- I will work to establish good communications with the people of our district.
- I will build a platform to work from based on the needs of our people, communities, fire departments, roads, etc.
- I will have meetings so we can stay in touch on issues and projects we are working on, and also stay updated on any new projects or needs that may arise, report our progress, etc.
- I have some ideas for our youth I would like to explore.
- I believe by working together, knowing what we want to accomplish and staying focused on what is important to our people we can continue to see our district grow and improve.

I want to say thanks again to everyone in District #3 for your time and the friendliness you have shown me. I am very proud to live in our district. It is the people that make it what it is. I want it to be the very best it can be for everyone. Having lived here all of my life, I have seen a lot of changes over the years, but one thing that has not changed is the kindred spirit of the people, their willingness to help in time of need. For this we should all be thankful. You can contact me at 743-3675 or 743-2901. Your vote and support are greatly appreciated.

Preserve me, O God, for in Thee do I put my trust. David was saying, protect me Lord, care for me as you would a helpless child. I am needy and helpless, but Lord, I belong to you, I am your child.

Today with sadness, sorrow, unemployment, sickness abounding everywhere, we need the Lord's protection. Some folks face trials that are beyond their human endurance. Broken homes bring heartache to many, especially children. In view of these difficulties, there is help. The Lord is ready to meet any and all who call upon Him, believing He will respond.

The Sixteenth Psalm offers encouragement and assurance. David was running at the time he wrote this Psalm. He was running from his son. Such sorrow and humiliation he experienced. But the importance of this Psalm is to show that even in the midst of deep despair, David sought the Lord. Would the Lord fail him? Read on. "The Lord is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup: Thou maintainest my lot. I have a goodly heritage," writes David.

Somehow in the midst of his problems, David looked up and knew what the Lord was doing for him and Who God was. The Lord is never found by looking down for Him. One may be down in the depths of a situation, but once that one looks up and acknowledges the Lord, He is there. His promises are to whosoever will.

The closing verse of this Psalm is one to carry with us all day. Earthly joy fade, plans fall apart, money and positions are lost....but God remains faithful. You may have read a poster that states "When all else fails read the instructions." That may be good advice to follow. Read the Word and the Lord's instructions. David wrote, Thou wilt show me the path of life: in Thy presence is fullness of joy; at Thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore."

Home Energy Assistance program begins Nov. 6

Gateway Community Services will begin the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) on November 6. The program will continue through December 15 in an effort to assist low income residents with high utility bills.

LIHEAP is a statewide initiative sponsored by the Kentucky Association of Community Action, Inc., in cooperation with the Cabinet for Health and Family Services (CHFS).

Last year, over 1,000 residents in Morgan County received financial assistance and emergency services from the LIHEAP subsidy component.

Applications for LIHEAP assistance will be taken in alphabetical order with specific days assigned on the calendar. Applicants must present the following when they apply:

- Most recent heating bill or verification that heating expenses are included in rent (i.e. lease agreements).
- Social Security card or official documentation (medical card) with Social Security numbers for each member of the household.

- Proof of all household income for the prior month.

- Proof of housing type (lease, Section 8 certification, Housing authority statement, deed or rent receipt).

- Proof of 911 address (driver's license, piece of mail with name and address, etc.).

Appointments will be taken Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and will be based on the last name of the applicant. Applicants should call 606-743-3133 to verify their schedule dates at the Gateway Community Services Organization Office at 124 College Street, West Liberty, Ky. 41472.

The benefit amount that each household receives will be based on its level of poverty and the type of fuel used for heating. All eligible households will receive a benefit. Benefits will be made payable to the household's primary or secondary heating fuel vendor.

District Judge • Nov. 7 MORGAN, ELLIOTT AND CARTER COUNTIES

In a recent candidate forum I stated that my opponent Kim Gevedon cancelled court 17 times last year just in Carter County. I witnessed this first hand as a practicing attorney in her Court last year. In an article published in the Ashland Daily Independent she stated that she only missed four times. It is true that she has only cancelled Court four times this year, however, in 2005 she did cancel Court 17 times, just in Carter County, and that was my main motivation for running for District Judge.

My opponent has had better attendance this year, but folks, this is an election year in which she has a contested election. It's like a major league baseball player who has his best season in the year his contract expires.

I'm running for District Judge because I want to see our courtroom run more efficiently and effectively. If I'm elected I'll run the courtroom, not the attorneys. I'll set hard and fast trial dates so that cases don't get laid over time and time again. Too many cases are slipping through the cracks and getting dismissed because of my opponent's lax management of the docket. She brags about how many cases she has disposed of during her tenure, but dismissing DUI's and other serious cases is NOT the proper way to dispose of cases, and certainly isn't worth bragging about.

Are you ready for a change in the way your District Court operates?

The Lady Cougars volleyball team

Scrappy Lady Cougars refuse to quit, but fall to Russell in final

Jarvis, Cantrell and Dulen named to the All-Regional Team

After battling their way to the 16th Regional Volleyball Tournament for the first time in history, the Morgan County Lady Cougar Volleyball Team fell to the more experienced Russell Red Devils in the championship game in Ashland on Oct. 18, to emerge as regional runnersup.

On their way to the finals, three Morgan team members earned berths on the All-Regional Team — Sam Jarvis, Candis Cantrell, and Alyssa Dulen.

The Lady Devils used their bigger size and experience to overwhelm the undersized Morgan girls in the first set 25-9. "To be in this situation and the girls never being here and to be playing Russell, our girls were nervous," said Morgan County coach Tammy Hensley. "It showed early on in the match."

Between all of Russell's seniors, Coach Darrell Adkins said, "I have 19 state tournament appearances in high school sports. It really shows in the big games."

Nonetheless, Morgan began to settle down in the second set and a one time cut the lead to 15-11 on a kill by Alyssa Dulen. But the bigger Lady Devils scored six of the next eight points to give Russell a 23-11 lead. But the Lady Cougars did not go down without a fight. "We are that scrappy, undersized team that should not even be here, according to everyone," said Hensley, "but these girls believed and they did not quit."

The Lady Cougars came back with eight straight points to cut the lead to 23-19, causing the large Morgan County contingent to chant "Morgan" throughout the gymnasium.

"They could not match us up front," Coach Adkins said, but those girls from Morgan do not quit.

Although the Lady Cougars did not get the Cinderella championship, Coach Hensley said that the building block for a great future was set with their tournament run.

"This year was all heart and want-to," Hensley said. "Our juniors really stepped up and played the net well this tournament. They will take this and build on it."

COURIER SPORTS

Cougar Football 2006 Team of great potential hampered by injuries, turnovers

By David Patrick

Sometimes lofty expectations just don't pan out. Such is the case for the Cougar football season.

After 15 wins and a pair of playoff appearances over the previous two seasons, most believed Randy Wood's team would earn a third straight winning season in 2006. Even the CATS' Pause football magazine tabbed the Cougars as number two in their district preseason rankings, trailing only defending state champion Russell.

But graduation, coupled with a host of injuries to key returnees proved more than Morgan could overcome. The bad news began before the season even started when quarterback Andy Fannin learned his right shoulder had failed to heal properly after surgery. The news worsened in the season opener against Rowan as Derrick Young suffered a high ankle sprain. Young, projected as one of the region's top 10 players after a 1,000 yard rushing season in 2005, finished with just 87 yards in limited duty. Add to that the fact that linebacker Ryan Buckler was hampered due to a respiratory infection that led to an irregular heartbeat; not to mention the loss of Andrew Lewis due to shoulder problems. The harsh reality is that this team was put behind the eight ball long before it could realize its potential.

"I guess under the circumstances, we did about as well as we could have," Wood said. "Maybe a big part of it falls on coaching. When the season began the way it did, you have to look at a little bit of everything. If Derrick is 100 percent, that makes a huge difference — on both sides of the ball. It's hard to miss a guy like that and it not affect your team."

Fannin's injury forced John Robert Henderson to play quarterback, a position he had never played before. And even though the Cougar coach says Henderson "did a great job" behind center, it also limited Wood in how he could use his senior star.

"We wanted to play John Robert at slot back, and when we couldn't, it posed a real problem," Wood said. "We needed him there so that teams couldn't stack their pass defense on just one side of the field. Last year, we had the option of throwing to either side (with Zeke Hall and Devan Adkins). This year, teams loaded up on Wes Montgomery and held us down. Not giving John Robert the freedom to catch and run the football limited what we could do."

Henderson still enjoyed a fantastic season, finishing with over 8— yards rushing yards, including a team-high 11 rushing touchdowns. He also added nearly 500 yards through the air, including six touchdown passes. No matter the opponent, Henderson consistently proved to be among the best players on the field.

"If John Robert is not the best quarterback I've ever coached, he's certainly the second best," Wood said.

The coach says if the many injuries weren't enough, there were plenty of turnovers to make a bad situation even worse. Of their eight losses, the Cougars were right in six of those games until late in the fourth quarter — including Rowan, Bath, West Carter and Fleming.

"We should have never lost to Rowan or West Carter," Wood said. "We're given a chance to win and we go turn the ball over. We did the same thing against Fleming County. You just can't do that and expect to win."

For the season, the Cougars finished sixth in the region in scoring offense (231 points), while tying for seventh (299 point) in scoring defense. Morgan put its offense on display in both of its victories, scoring 65 on Powell County and then putting up 56 on Lewis.

Despite a disappointing season record-wise, the Cougars still hold a 17-16 mark during the Randy Wood era at MCHS. That in itself is quite an accomplishment, considering the immense struggles this program has endured over the past 20 years. During his tenure, Morgan has gone from the doormat of the district to a respected football program throughout the region.

We should all appreciate the efforts of Coach Wood and the personal sacrifices he's made to help this program reach its potential. He's overcome a lack of numbers, a lack of a winning mentality, and most of all, the lack of adequate and quality facilities. I dare to say there's not a coach in the state that has accomplished so much with so little.

Young hunter gets his first deer

Dalton Adkins, 8-year-old son of Dukie and Donna adkins of West Liberty, killed his first deer during the recent youth hunt weekend. Dalton is the grandson of Larry and Della Ferguson of West Liberty and the great-grandson of Janie Wagoner and Lavenia Whitt of Wrigley.

The Stretch Run

There's few things in sports more exciting than hearing the words "and down the stretch they come" on the first Saturday in May at the Kentucky Derby.

As we enter November, the same is holding true for Kentucky football as the Wildcats enter "the stretch run." The Cats are 4-4 — having won every game (Texas State, Ole Miss, Central Michigan and Mississippi State) in which they were favored. To date, UK's lone slip up came in the 24-17 loss to South Carolina in Lexington — also UK's only home loss this season.

Rich Brooks and company must win two of their last four to be bowl eligible. However, being "bowl eligible" does not guarantee a bowl, especially if the Southeastern Conference has as many as nine teams vying for eight spots.

But if Kentucky were to win three of the final four games, that would secure a bowl. And with UK's strong fan following, it would likely lock up a significant bowl game, such as the Outback or Liberty Bowl. Of course, the Outback Bowl is especially partial to the Cats, with the founder of the popular steakhouse franchise being a UK graduate. Back in 1999, Tim Couch and the Wildcats brought the majority of the sold-out crowd of more than 66,000 to see the Cats go up against the legendary Joe Paterno and Penn State.

As for the present, Kentucky could take a major step toward a possible seven win season with an upset of a vulnerable Georgia team this weekend. The Bulldogs are 6-3 overall, but only 3-3 in SEC play. Furthermore, the Dawgs have won only one of four games against eastern division opponents. Most analysts believe if UK is to ever have a shot at beating Georgia, it could come on Saturday.

It's the first of three in a row for the Wildcats at home, giving them a realistic shot of being 7-4 before heading to Knoxville on November 25 to face the Volunteers.

Cantrell kills 10 point buck

Joshua Cantrell killed this 10 point buck on Sunday, October 15, during Youth Hunt. He shot the buck with a .243 caliber Winchester rifle. This was Josh's second day of deer hunting. He had the good fortune of bagging a turkey the last day of turkey season. Josh is the son of Johnny and Beverly Cantrell, of Lick Branch.

MCMS loses to Fleming in playoff game, 30 - 14

By Joe Willie

The Morgan County Middle School football team was defeated, 30-14, by the Fleming County Cougars last Wednesday in a playoff game at the Flemingsburg High School field.

Morgan got the first place and undefeated Fleming Cougars in a second-place in second place tie breaker with Rowan and Mason counties for a playoff berth with Fleming having the home field advantage.

Fleming started the scoring in the first quarter with two touchdowns to take a 14-0 lead. Morgan scored in the second quarter on a 55-yard pass play from Jared Curd to Brandon Havens. However, Fleming scored again to take a 22-6 lead at the half.

Morgan scored again on a 45-yard pass play to Brandon Havens to pull within 22-14. Fleming then marched down the field again to take a 30-14 lead. The game was closer than was reflected by the score. Morgan had several opportunities, once fumbling on Fleming's 15-yard line.

Morgan Middle ends their season with a regular season record of 6-4 and 7-4, considering the pre-season bowl game. Coach Hill and staff were proud of all their players and expect a great future for the eighth graders at the high school level.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Wes Montgomery

MCHS Boys Cougar Football Team

This week's athlete of the week is 6'1" senior slot back Wes Montgomery. Montgomery had a 75 yard TD run last Friday night vs. East Carter. He has been instrumental on the defensive side of the football as well as the offensive side all season long. The athletic and talented Montgomery finished the season with over 200 receiving yards and over 300 rushing yards total for the season. Congratulations to Wes Montgomery, this week's athlete of the week.

Twenty-Six

By Sherry Bailey

Oct. 30 — Little Madison Tobias needs our prayers again. She has been very ill for over six weeks. Her leukemia seems to be in remission, but she has developed another life-threatening condition that is destroying her blood cells. She will have to start chemo treatments over again (different kind), so please pray for God to help that little girl, and her parents.

Lord willing, I'm going to be a grandma again. My daughter Andrea Maynard of Groveport, Ohio, is expecting a baby during the first week of May. She's already had some complications, so please help me pray for her health as well as the baby's health. Andrea has one child, a little 5-year old girl named Ali, who is the sunshine of my life.

In case I don't write the Twenty-Six news before then, I'd like to extend happy birthday wishes to my mother's cousin, Mary Nickell, who will celebrate her 79th birthday on November 15. Also, happy birthday to our nephew, Mark Carpenter, who will celebrate his 35th birthday on November 16.

Happy birthday to our cousin, Peggy Lacy Moore of Lexington, who will celebrate her 54th birthday on October 31, and to our nephew, Gabriel Bailey of White Oak, who will be 16 years old on November 1.

Belated happy birthday wishes to Jessie Reed of White Oak, who recently celebrated her 95th birthday, and to my baby sister who just had a birthday on October 26.

Received a letter from a Courier reader, Myrtle Anglin, of Morehead who advised me of the recent death of her son-in-law. Her letter contained the following information:

Willie Stewart Havens of Fairborn, Ohio, passed away on October 6, 2006. Services were held in West Liberty. Stewart was the husband of Adalene Ross Havens and the son-in-law of Myrtle Anglin of Morehead. Myrtle had many visitors during this time, which included the decedent's widow, Adalene Havens, and their family from Ohio; Ray Ross, Charlie and Dora Ross and Gary Ross and family from Indiana; Charles, Edith, and Tabby Vinson, Trish and Billy Vickers of Alabama; Elizabeth Brewer and eight of her children and some of her grandchildren of Miamisburg, OH; Angie Mason, and Anna Osborne of Dayton, Ohio; John and Teresa Ross of Eustes, Florida; Dennis and Martha Skaggs, Whitley Barnett, Gladys Ditmer and children of Morehead; Sarah and Tom Coder and daughter, Johnnie Ray and Sheila Havens, Jackie, Suzie, her son Jeff and granddaughter, of West Liberty; and Jimmy Manning of Meads, KY. The following week Myrtle had a surprise visit from her nephews Larry (& Sharon) Sexton, Jerry (and Gail) Sexton, her niece and great-niece Rosemary and Michelle Collins all of Middletown, Ohio; her nephew Paul (and Florence) Sexton of Monticello, KY; and her nephew, Michael Gamble, of Morehead. The Sextons are the children of Myrtle's sister, the late Edith (and Otis) Sexton.

Last week, Greg and Virginia Terry visited their son, Richard Terry, in Winchester, Ohio, for several days. While there, they celebrated their granddaughter, Amanda's 12th birthday.

Thought for the day (from my grandmother, passed down through my mother to me): What's in your heart, let no one know, or to your friends your secrets strew. For when your friend become your foe, then all the world your secrets know.

Thank you, Judge Executive Tim Conley, State highway employees, County highway employees, or whoever is responsible for cutting the brush on the sides of our roads. That is something that has needed to be done for a long time. Highway 772 seems so much wider now that there aren't little bushes and trees almost sticking out in the road.

Speaking of roads, I don't understand how people can litter the sides of our roads like they do. WHY don't we have more respect for our ourselves, our communities, counties, and our state than that? Kentucky used to be beautiful, but it is disgraceful to see trash and litter on the sides of the road. Please, please think twice before throwing papers, food, and trash out your car window. The sides of the roads are not dumping places. It makes us look (to people from other states who are passing through Kentucky) like WE are trash and have no respect for ourselves [or others] when we throw trash out on other people's property. We certainly wouldn't litter our own property, so why do people litter other people's property? We need to be reminded of 'the golden rule,' and do unto others as we would have them do unto us . . .

Until next time, stay healthy and may God bless you and yours!
